Chamber of Commerce (Woman of the Year in 2010), Induction into the Hidalgo Walk of Fame, Weslaco Police Board, and Texas Retired Teachers Local Chapter, earning multiple Awards and Recognition. After retiring, Blanca and Saul's love of Travel and Adventure lead them to explore the cultures and cuisines of Mexico, all fifty US states, Canada, and multiple European countries, often accompanied by their close friends. Blanca lost her devoted husband in 2010 and found comfort in focusing her attention on her son and his expanding family. Blanca will be remembered for her compassion, generosity, devotion to educational enlightenment, and immeasurable love for friends and family. Her greatest joy and brightest smiles came in the company of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, who will fondly remember her as 'Gigi'. The family wishes to thank Dr. Daisy Arce and Dr. Pedro McDougal, the caring personnel of IPH Hospice, along with Blanca's dedicated Providers, Veronica Perez and Mary Villanueva, for their tireless fidelity to Blanca's well-being. We also extend our gratitude and thanks to her dear friends, Grace Camargo, Gloria Saenz, and countless others, who offered their prayers, support and comfort in Blanca's time of need. It was not unusual for Blanca to sway me away from eating any type of sweets at the Civil Service Conferences and instead give me a handful of raw peanuts saying "Don't eat that. These are better for your health." She also always wanted to know my hotel room number, so she could change her room to be somewhere closer to mine. Such a delightful woman! I enjoyed her company so much, especially hearing about all her travels. Rest in peace, beautiful soul! You will be missed.
