

Jose E. Velazquez

OCT 10, 1942 - JAN 24, 2025

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
-----------------------	--------

Jose E. Velazquez

OCT 10, 1942 - JAN 24, 2025

Weslaco- Jose E. Velasquez, a beloved figure in his community and a dedicated family man, passed away on January 24, 2025, at the Knapp Medical Center in Weslaco, Texas. He was born on October 10, 1942, in Linares, Mexico. Jose lived a life that exemplified hard work and commitment, particularly in the agricultural sector, where he devoted most of his career to providing for his family. Known for his enthusiastic personality, Jose was a mentor and a storyteller who shared his rich experiences with those around him. His passion for education profoundly influenced his family, and he instilled in them the crucial lesson of its importance—a legacy that will undoubtedly resonate for generations to come. Jose took immense pride in watching his children pursue their education, marking this as one of his proudest accomplishments. Jose had various interests that brought him joy outside of his professional life. He was a fan of boxing, baseball, and especially soccer. These hobbies were complemented by his love for spending time with family, watching movies, and listening to music, creating a vibrant and well-rounded life. Jose leaves behind a legacy of love, dedication, and inspiration that will be cherished by those who knew him. His hard work and commitment to his family and community will forever be remembered, and his spirit will live on through the many lives he touched. Jose is preceded in death by his parents, Ascencion and Margarita Velasquez, his loving wife Maria del Socorro Velasquez Mendoza. He is survived by his children, Yesenia Velasquez (Jesus Martinez), Jose Luis Velasquez (Susana), Thalia Josefina Torres (Rudy Edwin), grandchildren, Brian, Steve, Scarlett, Isaac, Yadira, Jayden, and Lucy, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Jose by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit