Elvira supported her family, raising her children with selfless love and guiding them through life's challenges. She took great pride in nurturing their lives and balancing responsibilities while instilling values rooted in faith and compassion. Her unwavering dedication was evident in every facet of her work, from taking meticulous care of her parents to always being present for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, cheering them on at their events. Elvira's faith was a cornerstone of her life, and she was seldom seen without her Bible, a source of strength and solace for her.
