

Lisa Ochsenfeld

JAN 13, 1980 - JUN 15, 2024

Scan to Visit

McCALEB &
FUNERAL HOME
SACRED PARK CEMETERY
A Life Celebration Home

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 5
Media	Page 6

Lisa Ochsenfeld

JAN 13, 1980 - JUN 15, 2024

Lisa Cherie Ochsenfeld, born on January 13, 1980, in Hampton, Virginia, bid farewell to the world on June 15, 2024, in Weslaco. She leaves behind a legacy of love, hard work, and creativity that will forever be cherished by those who had the privilege of knowing her. Lisa's formative years were filled with the playful antics of her two older brothers, Peter and James. They often found joy in teasing her, a dynamic that was a mix of sibling rivalry and light-hearted pranks. Yet, Lisa's affection for her brothers was unwavering, a testament to her deep-rooted love and respect for family. Lisa's caring nature and sentimental spirit touched the lives of many, especially her family and friends. She treasured a security blanket crafted by her great-grandmother, "Nanny," holding onto it until it was merely shredded out of love and nostalgia. Despite being the only girl surrounded by older brothers, Lisa embraced her femininity through her passion for Barbie Dolls, playing house, and all things girly, always sharing these moments with her loved ones. At a young age, Lisa put her faith in Jesus Christ and was baptized at Bethel Temple, finding joy in the worship, particularly the music. Lisa's love for singing and dancing was a testament to her vibrant spirit and deep connection to her faith. As an adult, Lisa earned a certificate as a Phlebotomist while living in Florida. She enjoyed her career in phlebotomy, and her care and compassion have touched the lives of many patients. Even though Lisa was a night owl, working in construction motivated her to be up early to work with her father at PNO Construction, Sun Rock, and OWCM. Lisa was known for rolling up her sleeves and getting involved in every aspect of the family business - from laying floors to carpentry - showcasing her hands-on approach, probably a characteristic born from being raised with her rough and tough brothers. Lisa's hobbies and passions vividly depicted a vibrant soul with a deep appreciation for artistry and furry companions. An ardent animal lover with a particular fondness for Huskies and part wolf, like Ace - distinguished by one blue

Obituary

Lisa Ochsenfeld

JAN 13, 1980 - JUN 15, 2024

eye and one brown - she also adored cats and rabbits. Her artistic talents extended beyond boundaries as she delved into crafting, jewelery (Diamond Art), painting, and various other creative endeavors that showcased her boundless imagination and skill. Lisa was very outgoing but humble. She would prefer to celebrate someone's victories than draw attention to herself. Lisa was an encourager and was so proud of her kids. She celebrated every victory and birthday with them, but more importantly, she struggled when her kids did. Lisa's greatest wish was for her children to find happiness in whatever they do. Lisa is preceded in death by her father, Peter Nathan Ochsenfeld. She is survived by her grandmother, Anne E. South of Virginia; her mom, Brenda "Faye" Ochsenfeld of Weslaco; her children, William J. Nichols of Oklahoma, Jack Bushard Jr., of Florida, Jessie Nichols, Francisco Acevedo, and Isabella Acevedo, all of Weslaco, brothers Peter M. Ochsenfeld of Virginia and James A. Ochsenfeld of Georgia, and one granddaughter, Issadora Nichols of Oklahoma. A Celebration of Lisa's life will be held on Tuesday, Jun 25, 2024, at 1 pm, in the Big Hall at Rancho Village, 1900 S Bridge Ave. Weslaco, TX 78596, officiated by Pastor Lee Tracy.

Tribute Wall

Lisa Ochsenfeld
JAN 13, 1980 - JUN 15, 2024

Anonymous shared a Video.

August 7 at 4:21 PM

Denise Nichols posted:

Faye I was so shocked to learn of your loss of Nathan and Lisa. Lisa and I became close in Florida. We really became close after I Lost Kevin. Lisa will be greatly missed. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I wish I could have made it to Texas to pay my respects. May God give you strength to get through the days to come.

June 29 at 6:42 AM

Margot Maruska posted:

Faye, I am so very sorry for the loss of your daughter, Lisa. May the Lord Jesus grant you His comfort, courage, and strength in the days ahead. The Lord is Your hope, rock and fortress during this time. May the Lord cover you with His wings and grant you His supernatural peace. I did not know about Lisa and Nathan until today. Sincerely, Margot Maruska

June 29 at 6:42 AM

Mike And Linda Funderburgh posted:

The loss of a daughter to Faye, sister to Peter and James, and mother to William, Jessie, Jack, Francisco and Bella is great. We want to offer you our prayers, support, and willingness to help you during this difficult time. Lisa was always busy and dedicated to her work. She laid the floors and worked on remodels in many of the buildings and homes at Rancho Village. Our hearts ache for you.

June 27 at 11:07 AM

Mike And Linda Funderburgh lit a candle in honor of Lisa.

The loss of a daughter to Faye, sister to Peter and James, and mother to William, Jessie, Jack, Francisco and Bella is great. We want to offer you our prayers, support, and willingness to help you during this difficult time. Lisa was always busy and dedicated to her work. She laid the floors and worked on remodels in many of the buildings and homes at Rancho Village. Our hearts ache for you.

June 22 at 11:01 PM

Media

Lisa Ochsenfeld
JAN 13, 1980 - JUN 15, 2024

Anonymous shared a Video.

August 7 at 4:21 PM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Lisa by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit