Nora Cavazos

AUG 16, 1961 - AUG 15, 2023

Nora Cavazos, a beloved homemaker, passed away on August 15, 2023, at her home, surrounded by her loving family.

Nora was born on August 16, 1961, in Rancho la Palma Municipio Matamoros to Roman Salinas Garcia and Maria de los Angeles Jimenez. Nora's life revolved around her loved ones, and enjoyed spending time with her family. She was especially fond of her two grandsons, Emilio Jr. "EJ" and Emmie Rae Flores, whom she adored and nurtured affectionately.

Nora's warm embrace and genuine interest in their lives will forever remain a cherished memory for them. As a homemaker, Nora found purpose in creating a loving and nurturing environment for her family. She took great pride in her role as a mother to Nora Cavazos and Aimee Cavazos. Her dedication to providing comfort and care created countless memories that will continue to resonate within their hearts.

Nora was a great cook. Her specialized recipes were sought after by family and friends alike. The aroma of carne guisada simmering on the stove or the sight of freshly made corn tortillas displayed the love she poured into every dish she prepared. Nora's talent for transforming simple ingredients into mouth-watering meals brought joy and happiness to those lucky enough to savor her creations.

In addition to being an exceptional cook, Nora enjoyed playing lotería, which brought laughter and excitement to countless gatherings. Her enthusiasm during these games was infectious, uniting loved ones while creating cherished memories that will be treasured forever.

Nora's strong personality resonated throughout her actions; she faced life with unwavering strength and remained faithful through every hurdle. She instilled values of perseverance, kindness, and dedication. Outside of her family life, Nora found solace in spirituality. She enjoyed listening to religious songs and fervently prayed the rosary.
