Ginger Vaughan

MAR 16, 1943 - DEC 20, 2021

WESLACO -Ginger Vaughan went to be with the Lord on Dec 20th, 2021, in Weslaco, Tx. She had the best Christmas ever, with God, her husband-Carroll Vaughan, Father-Bennie Brown, Mother-Virginia Brown and Brother-Doug Brown.

Ginger's life was spent spoiling her husband of 41 yrs. and raising 3 children, in a Christian home. She is survived by her son, Baylor Vaughan (wife Amanda), daughter, Tinka O'Dwyer (husband Sean), daughter, Twyla Vaughan, grandchildren Dustin Vaughan, Mika O' Dwyer and Kylee O'Dwyer and her sister Karen Doffing (husband Randy).

Ginger enjoyed hauling piles of kids to 4-H events, trading delicious recipes with her sister Karen and spending time outdoors fishing and hunting. She also liked doing mail-in sweepstakes, playing in the Frio river, and being a "free Uber" for her close friends.

Additionally, she served in her church, RGV Fellowship Church. The family welcomes you to attend a Celebration of Life, as per her wishes. Her ashes will be spread at a later date, with family. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested donations be made to MD Anderson. Donate MD Anderson Cancer Center, "give in honor of", mail card to 7317 Escondido St Mission TX 78573 (Baylor Vaughan). If you have memorable pictures, please email to : twylarene@gmail.com for the slide show.

Celebration of Life: Sat. Jan 8th. 10:30am Mercedes Livestock Show Lamb Arena (where Ginger served for 48 years for the 4-H and FFA). Pastor, Art Beckwith, will say a few words from 10:30 - 11:00, followed by a pot luck and dessert social. Please bring your favorite dish. Services will also be available via facebook/mccalebfuneralhome

We will all miss Ginger so much. We spent a lot of time together talking about everything under the sun. Often while walking in the pool or sitting around a table in meetings or just riding in the car to go somewhere fun. My memories of her are very dear to me. She was one of the kindest people who made everyone feel God's love in their lives. Con Dios my friend, Yvonne Wren Ellison

Condolences for the loss of your mom, grandmother, sister, and friend. Ginger was a grand personality. Always great with 4-H and helping with whatever needed to be done. I have missed her laugh, always brought a smile.

To the Family of Ginger; We are so sorry for the loss of your dear Mom. We met her at Whataburger years ago where the "Senior Coffee Clutch" gathered most days in the winter for breakfast & coffee. I loved her stories about her family & the good old days in the RGV & the Hill Country. She had so many talents & loved being with her friends & family. She will be dearly missed. RIP Ginger ❤️
