Patia Lin Nunn

MAR 15, 1963 - JUL 29, 2021

Houston/Weslaco- Patia Lin Nunn (Pemelton). Patia was born at Knapp Hospital in Weslaco Texas to Carl Dee & Mary Ella Pemelton.

Patia was preceded in death by her father on July 28, 1974. She is survived by her husband Matthew Craig Nunn, Mother Mary Ella Pemelton, Daughter Jodi Lin Hjelle, Brother Carl Dee Pemelton Jr., two grandchildren Rylee Lin Hjelle & Truman Matthew Hjelle.

While attending Weslaco High School Patia was a member of the Pacesetters Drill Team. She later graduated from the University of Texas with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration.

She was in sales and design throughout her career first designing swimming pools in the family business and after moving to Houston, TX she worked as a kitchen and bath designer for many years.

Patia was a kind soft-hearted person but also strong when needed. She was always ready to save a friend or a dog. She enjoyed caring for and playing with her "critters". Patia's favorite place was the beach (South Padre), she loved her music, fishing and her flower gardens. She could never get enough of her grandbabies.

Patia will be deeply missed by her many friends and family. A memorial service is planned for October. The exact date will be announced.

March 15, 1963 was a wonderful day for Mary & Dee Pemelton & the Pemeltons, Robersons, Youngbloods & other family members....as that was the day we all had anxiously awaited.....the birth of our "Miracle Baby" Patia Lin & what a miracle she turned out to be.....always loving, spunky, fun & funny.....once when she was around 2 & sitting in her Grandpa Youngblood's lap she suddenly bit his arm...he exclaimed why did you do that ? & she said Grandpa I thought you was a chicken.....another time when she was around 3 Mary & I were trying to get Patia to take an afternoon nap & she was not co-operating so Mary said let's lie down on the bed with her & sing her favorite song "Puff The Magic Dragon" & she will probably go to sleep....so we did.....quite some time later we both woke up to the sound of Patia off in another room alone singing loudly....she had sung us to sleep.....she was always an interesting, intelligent, unique person.....I was so proud of her & loved her as though she was not only my special niece but my own daughter....we had a strong bond & I will miss & love her forever....so to Patia...be good in Heaven sweetheart until all of us who love you can join you....Love you always, Aunt Merle Youngblood Yeakley....
