Mark Roach lit a candle in honor of Janet.

Aunt Janet was a precious soul loved by everyone in our family, most especially by Grandma and Grandpa (Edith and F.I.). It gives me joy to know she is with them and the Lord in Heaven today!

I remember having so many fun sleep overs with Janet, Kathy and no air conditioning! We got to enjoy a big fan, windows open and cricket sounds throughout the night. I remember Aunt Edith walking in and telling us to "be quiet!" We sure had a lot of fun times together as cousins from double dates, prom and running around together. Later in life, Rene and I enjoyed eating out and laughing a lot on Friday nights with you and Buddy. Just a few of the many memories of you. Your cousin Connie

Will and I are so sorry to hear of Janet's death. I knew her almost all my life, since she was Kathy's little sister (whom we ignored growing up! 😊). We were neighbors with her and Buddy as young couples in the 70's. Janet was a wonderful and efficient Secretary to the Weslaco Realtors from the mid-70's till late '80's. We send much sympathy and prayers of peace to Buddy and the rest of the family. 🙏
