Doug Plank and Jerry Roberson, I am so sorry to hear of Eva's passing, but i try to think about her reunion with Charlie. She was ready to go be with him. I talked to Eva about 10 days ago and she sounded like she was feeling better and in good spirits, in fact just Sat. 20th I send her a picture of her taken in 1950. Eva was a beautiful girl and a good friend. She was always kind and had a smile on her face. Remember all the happy things and the special memories. That is the way I will always remember her. I loved her. Jean Black Seegmiller
