Ismael and Family, \n It deeply saddened our hearts to learn that your mother had passed away. These times are never easy, but with good friends and family by your side it eases the pain a little. I know what you are going through is not easy, and no words can bring total comfort, yet in these trying times, know that our Lord is with you and your mother's memory will always be your own. We will continue to pray for your mother and your family, that you find comfort and piece. We send you blessings and warm hugs. \n\nHector and Erica Morales
