His home was a sanctuary where he found peace and happiness surrounded by those he loved. He was always more than willing to listen to any one in need of assistance in strategizing a way to fix a problem, or just listen to what someone had to get off their chest.

Joseph's legacy is one of love, resilience, and generosity- a life well-lived that touched countless hearts. May his memory bring comfort to all who knew him. A memorial service will be held on March 17, 2026 at 1:00 pm at Rio Grande Valley State Veterans Cemetery. 2520 Inspiration Road in Mission Texas.

Joe and I had a lot of great adventures together dove hunting, chasing hogs, fishing... I remember a couple months after Joe had a heart procedure, we went off shore snapper fishing. We soon got into the red snapper but suddenly Joe said he didn't have the strength to keep reeling... my other buddy and I started to become worried. I took Joe's rod and started cranking... after a minute I yelled over to Joe "Your okay Buddy! You were trying to pull up the anchor!". Once we unhooked his line from the anchor rope, Joe went on to limit out! I sure do miss you my good friend!
