Ramiro Gonzalez

NOV 21, 1947 - MAR 5, 2026

Weslaco – Ramiro Gonzalez, 78, passed away on March 5, 2026, at New Life Assisted Living. He was born on November 21, 1947, in Weslaco, Texas, to Ramiro and Elva (Garza) Gonzalez.

Ramiro grew up in Weslaco and graduated from Weslaco High School before continuing his education at Sul Ross University, where he earned his bachelor's degree.

Ramiro was a man of determination and strong will. He was known as an extremely hard worker who approached life with perseverance and grit. There was never any quit in him, and throughout his life, he pushed himself to accomplish more than most. His strength, work ethic, and drive left a lasting impression on those who knew him.

Above all, Ramiro was a father who worked hard to build the best life he could for his sons. His life was filled with many passions and relationships, and he carried a deep desire to care for others and to live life fully.

Ramiro loved the outdoors and the ranching lifestyle. He admired the spirit of the American West and often imagined life through the lens of the classic westerns he loved. In many ways, he saw the world like the heroes of those films—strong, independent, and determined to live life on his own terms.

One song that captured his spirit well was Frank Sinatra's "My Way." Ramiro truly lived his life his way—unapologetically and with conviction. It was something remarkable to witness.

Though no one is perfect, Ramiro was deeply loved as a father, and the lessons he passed down helped shape the lives of his children. His legacy lives on through them and through the many memories they carry.

Ramiro is preceded in death by his parents, Ramiro and Elva Gonzalez; his son, Ramiro Antonio Gonzalez; his brother, Robert "Bobby" Gonzalez; and his brother-in-law, Humberto Saenz.
